

Role of the Regional Coach

The Regional Coach serves as a primary volunteer who is responsible for supporting the growth and development of specific chapters within a given region. The Regional Coach, along with the Regional Officers, work with the Chapter Advisory Teams and chapter executive cabinets to provide chapter operations support. The Regional Team serves as the direct support structure between the local chapter and Headquarters Staff. Every region will have one regional coach for every five chapters within the region.

Regional Coach Expectations

Regional Coaches will support chapters by:

- Work directly with five, or less, chapters within the region to provide chapter operations support.
- Supports Chapter Advisory Teams to ensure chapters are receiving necessary resources and information to adhere to all administrative deadlines.
- Serves as interim Lead Advisor while working with the Regional Director and Headquarters Staff to fill the vacancy.
- Maintains proficiency in all areas of chapter operations, including but not limited to: OmegaFi/Vault, Chapter Builder, ritual ceremonies, Member Safety & Wellness Policies, etc.
- At the direction of Headquarters Staff, serves as an additional point of contact for university staff.
- Communicates regularly with all assigned chapter presidents to provide chapter operational support.
- Maintains strong verbal and written communication with Regional Director and Headquarters Staff to address chapter issues within a timely manner.
- Attends specific chapter/alumni association events by request and per availability.
- Review monthly communication to stay up to date with current updates from Headquarters and promote time-sensitive information within the region.
- Attends Webb Academy, annually.
- Attends monthly Region Team meetings to assess the needs of the chapters within the region.
- Attends regular training opportunities hosted by Fraternity Staff.
- Maintains relationships with alumni living in assigned region.
- Ensure that all social behaviors align with the expectations that are given to the men in the chapter; in person and on social media.