ANNUAL REPORT

SIG TAU FOUNDATION

NOTE FROM FOUNDATION CHAIRMAN

Leaving Grand Conclave Kansas City this summer, I was reminded what I love so much about our Fraternity; that is the relationships it creates. From warm handshakes and familiar faces of those brothers and friends I have seen support Sigma Tau Gamma through the years, to first introductions of the courageous, young men defining our Fraternity today during unprecedented times, every connection reminds me why I am honored to serve this Foundation.

As I look back on another successful summer meeting and the impact of the last year, the question most on my mind is "What Next?"

The Sig Tau Foundation helped fund the first ever Spring Noble Man Institute this year, giving 60 more new members the opportunity to experience this retreat-style leadership program. What next? How do we continue to expand and grow this program, giving all new members this Principled experience?

The final phase of the reimagined Path of Principles Member Education Program, the Gamma phase, is being piloted in select chapters this year. What next? What new educational initiative can we support next to further develop Noble Men?

And to you, brothers, friends, and donors I ask – what next? How will we support our members this year? How can we do more for our Fraternity? What new heights, milestones, and accomplishments await us? What Next...we achieve together.

Jeff Russo, Carnegie Mellon

$14,000 AWARDED GRAND CONCLAVE GRANTS

Attending Grand Conclave is a memorable and impactful experience for undergraduate brothers. This summer, the Sig Tau Foundation was able to grant more than $14,000 through Chapter Funds to decrease the cost for members wishing to attend.

"Attending Grand Conclave was one of the most eye opening and incredible experiences I have had as a brother of Sigma Tau Gamma. Probably even all time. To be able to experience the sheer size and magnitude of the organization I'm a part of was unbelievable... The experience as a whole strengthened my pride of being a Sig Tau. It was so cool how anyone you met there would welcome you with open arms. We all came together because we care about the organization and each other, so we had already had something in common with one another. Also seeing how all the alumni interact with each other as lifelong friends was inspiring for me to want to reach out to more brothers and create those bonds. I can't wait to have the opportunity to experience Grand Conclave again in the future, either as an active undergraduate or as an alumni."

– Jacob Barger, Michigan Tech

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

For over a decade, Sig Tau has been proud to partner with Special Olympics as the Fraternity's official philanthropy. Every year, our chapters host fundraisers, events, and volunteer in support of Special Olympics, making a direct impact in the lives of Special Olympics athletes. This summer, Sig Tau was proud to host representatives from Special Olympics at Grand Conclave and present a check for funds raised by undergraduate members.

AZURE AND WHITE UNDERGRADUATE GIVING CLUB

The Azure and White Undergraduate Giving Club is the Sig Tau Foundation's exclusive giving club for undergraduates. It is designed to provide undergraduate members an opportunity to begin their own legacy of giving by supporting Sig Tau and ensuring its future. The core benefit of membership in the Azure and White Club is the opportunity to assist fellow brothers and give back as an active member. As a thank you for joining, undergraduate donors receive an exclusive Sigma Tau Gamma gift in recognition of their donations.

NOBLE KNIGHT CHAPTER CHALLENGE

VS

$21,000 RAISED

In its second year, the Noble Knight Chapter Challenge continued to grow as we raised even more dollars to support Chapter Funds. With more than $21,000 raised, our alumni got competitive and creative with their giving, some even leveraging employer gift matches!

The Sig Tau Foundation will continue this campaign again in Spring 2023 and to increase our impact, we need the help of our alumni. Reach out to HQ staff and find out how you can get involved early and be a leader and advocate for your chapter.

MEMBER EDUCATION UPDATE

The catalyst for the future of Sigma Tau Gamma is providing education outside of the classroom. Our chapters do this each and every chapter meeting, they do it with each new member class, and they do it when they attend national programs like Noble Man Institute or the Earl A. Webb Academy of Principled Leaders.

The member education overhaul continues. The Sigma Phase of the Path of Principles launched nationally this year as we educate our newest members on Sig Tau and the lasting impact it can have. We are also prioritizing the Tau Phase and Gamma Phase in the coming year. These phases focus on outside the classroom education, and how to prepare for next steps of life once you walk across the stage earning your degree.

Noble Man Institute continues to break records. This past fall was the most attended Institute ever. With a spring Noble Man Institute, we are projecting to have more undergraduates attend this academic year than the last two years combined. When we combine brotherhood and education together, that is how we build noble generations of men.

“The value of coming down to Indianapolis for Gamma Phase training was immeasurable. It’s not everyday you can meet with brothers across the country where we’re all giving our best efforts to make this organization as engaging and educational as possible. I was also able to introduce a brother to more of what the national fraternity is and how Sigma Tau Gamma branches out beyond our chapter.”

– Nick Kerkhoff, Carroll

“I want to help bring other undergraduate brothers to programs like Noble Man or even Grand Conclave. I was the undergraduate chair of the ritual committee and being able to work alongside brothers of all ages to make an impact this summer was rewarding.”

– Kenny Buckley, Robert Morris

NOBLE MAN INSTITUTE GROWS WITH SPRING PROGRAM

In April 2022, thanks to donor support, Sig Tau hosted the first spring Noble Man Institute in addition to the usual fall program. This allowed for an additional 60 new members to experience this retreat-style weekend program. Noble Man Institute is a member's first opportunity to meet brothers from around the country, experience a national leadership program, and dive deeper into their lifelong commitment to Sigma Tau Gamma. Investing in leadership programming like Noble Man Institute challenges our members to live courageously and harness their nobility to lead others. The Institute centers around the six Principles while bringing together alumni and undergraduate members of Sigma Tau Gamma from across our regions to develop leadership skills, expand knowledge of the fraternity, and facilitate team building.

“Noble Man Institute taught me different leadership styles and how to build and improve upon them. I made a great deal of new connections with brothers across the country and brought back valuable ideas to my chapter in terms of what we can do to improve and what else we can add to our agenda. It also taught me how to be more efficient and gave me an abundance of recruitment ideas.”

📍 – Sadaat Ahmed, Winona State

“It showed me that this brotherhood is bigger than me, bigger than my chapter, and bigger than my university as well. Seeing the scope of this organization really cements the brotherhood and what it truly means to be a noble man in 2022.”
